UPS Partners to Help GSH Clients

Erica McCants, business development manager of UPS, presented a check for $5,000 to Good Shepherd Housing and Family Services president and CEO David Levine for the kickoff of a new financial empowerment program for GSH clients. The Change purse program is a tailored financial mentoring program where participants will meet to discuss attitudes about money and management skills. The UPS Foundation grant will match each participant's savings, up to $500, during the eight-week program.

Ad Salespeople Needed

The Mount Vernon Voice is looking for people to sell advertising in the Mount Vernon, Lee and Alexandria areas.

- * Work on your own time.
- * Great opportunity for self-starters.
- * Be a part of the Voice of your community.
- * Must have own car.
- * Knowledge of the area a huge plus.

We offer an EXCELLENT commission.

For more information, e-mail mountvernonvoice@aol.com

Freedom. Safety.

Happy pets. Peace of mind.

HIDDEN FENCES

A Hidden Fence ...

- Keeps your pet safely in your yard
- Allows your pet to play outside
- Works for all dogs - and CATS, too!
- Is effective up to 200 acres
- Hides the fence ... not your view
- Costs less, is easier to maintain and lasts much longer than other fences
